Superior results come from who you are more than from what you do.

John Winn builds long-term trusting relationships with emerging leaders and their companies successfully aligning priorities and maximizing potential. Acting as a confidential soundboard John listens to clients on a deep level creating clarity for optimal steps to achieving goals.

As a professional coach and facilitator, John has a knack for assisting clients to see beyond surface problems into core challenges. His love of connecting with others on a human-level has led to a keen observance of emotions, body and verbal language providing the opportunity to ask questions that attune you to your inner wisdom and answers.

John discovered his passion for personal and professional development while completing his Bachelor of Science degree from Texas State University. His education was further enhanced with a certification from Newfield Network in ontological coaching.
